Caldwell is pleased to announce that our manufacturing facilities, previously located in three adjacent buildings, are moving to our new location, placing all manufacturing operations under one roof!

Caldwell Manufacturing Plant is now located at:

4080 Logistics Parkway, Rockford, IL 61109

The City of Rockford recently changed the street name from Easy Street to Logistics Parkway, and that will take a while to populate the various navigation and mapping systems.

To find us on GPS or online mapping services, please enter 4080 Easy Street as your destination address, or you can use our directions below. Note that the street signs have already been changed.
